

REMARKS

Since the applicants herein believe that they have now provided information to the Examiner about their invention in the format required by U.S. Patent & Trademark Office, and no new matter has been added, and since they further submit that they have now defined an invention that is distinguishable from the prior art cited by the Examiner, the applicants respectfully request reconsideration and that their new and amended claims now be reviewed for patentability and allowed.

Respectfully submitted on behalf of Samuel B. Tafoya and Hans G. Broemel by:
